

Homophones are words that sound the same but are spelt differently. How well do you know your homophones?

they or there

1. _____ are playing football.
2. If it rains, _____ will get wet.
3. _____ are five boys in the line.
4. _____ are all talking.
5. How many sweets are _____ left in the box?
6. Yes, _____ all enjoyed the game.
7. _____ could be some time left.
8. _____ were six eggs to give away.
9. _____ are seven dogs in _____ and _____ are all barking.
10. _____ must be a way to do it!

where or were

1. _____ are they going?
2. They _____ my friends.
3. I don't know _____ they are!
4. The boys _____ on the field.
5. There _____ five eggs left in the box.
6. _____ are the winners?
7. We handed in when we _____ finished.
8. The dogs _____ barking.
9. The climbers _____ lost.
10. They didn't know _____ they _____ .

11. There/They are two sweets left.
12. There/They are Paul's sweets.
13. There/They must stand on their/they heads.
14. Which girls where/were hiding under there/they?
15. There/They are two chicken-pox spots on my face and there/they are both on my chin.
16. How many children where/were late for their/they dinner?
17. There/They were five children who where/were late.
18. Where/were have there/they gone?
19. I wonder where/were there/they have put their/they books.
20. There/They hid them over there/they where/were I could not see them.
21. The teacher asked them where/were there/they where/were going.
22. There/they where/were putting their/they books in their/they bags.